

Publication: The Times of India

Category: Home, Jail & Management Department

Page No: 5 Date: 12/08/2017

Trend: Negative Press Release: NONE

2 held in stripping case

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Dumka: Two persons, including the cook of the Godda superintendent of police (SP), were arrested on charges of circulating an objectionable video, of a tribal girl getting stripped, on social media on Friday.

During interrogation, Milindra Marandi, the district SP's former cook, and Sunilal Tudu said the video was handed over to them by some girls belonging to S P Mahila College. The duo also revealed the involvement of more boys who do not belong to the college.

"Police have launched a search for the admin of a WhatsApp group name Jai Jharkhand and others who were involved in the incident," Dumka SP Mayur Patel said. The SP added that Marandi is presently posted in Godda district police. Both Marandi and Tudu belong to Dumka district and are residents of Ramgarh and Shikaripara police station areas respectively.

Meanwhile, a local women's organisation named Women Empowerment (WE) submitted a memorandum to the deputy commissioner and called for stern action against the culprits.